

UNIVERSITY APPLICATION Part II

Description of your ADR Curriculum

Following Rule 5.1 of the 2014 Competition Rules, the Organizing Committee will give preference to Teams from universities with a strong ADR curriculum (special focus on mediation is an advantage).

This document invites all Teams applying to the 2014 Competition to provide the Organizing Committee with detailed information about their ADR curriculum.

---

YOUR CONTACT INFORMATION

UNIVERSITY NAME:

FIRST NAME:

LAST NAME:

EMAIL:

PHONE NUMBER:

---

ACADEMIC PROGRAM

1) Does your academic program offer mediation or other dispute resolution courses?

Yes

No

If yes, please list all relevant courses indicating (for each) the following:

Course name

Faculty or School offering the program e.g. Law Faculty; Business School

Requirements to participate

Duration (hours) of course

Units of credit assessment process

Name of Academic responsible for the course

If yes, please list projects or programs relating to mediation which are offered in addition to the programs listed in 1.1 above. (For example these may include programs such as research projects, internships and exchange programs) indicating:

Course name

Faculty or School offering the program e.g Law Faculty; Business School

Requirements

Duration (hours)

Units of credit and assessment process (if applicable)

Name of Academic responsible for the course

2) Of the courses and programs listed above, which of the programs and/or projects are compulsory for students participating in the Competition:

3) Describe any other preparation process or program which the students participating in the ICC Mediation Competition are required to undertake indicating:

Name

Faculty or School offering the program (or external body if not offered by the university)

Duration (hours)

Units of credit assessment process (if applicable)

Name of Academic responsible for the program

Please note that your application online is only complete after the return of this document.

Thank you for returning this back to the Organizing Committee at: iccmediationcompetition@iccwbo.org