

Dubai | 15-17 April 2013 | ICC's first annual conference on

INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION IN THE MIDDLE EAST AND NORTH AFRICA (MENA)

Under the auspices of the ICC International Court of Arbitration

Save the date:
15-17 April 2013

- In English and Arabic
- Top class speakers including regional experts
- Topical discussions
- Excellent opportunity to network

Taking place in English and Arabic, this first annual conference is a “must attend” for arbitration professionals in the MENA region who want to keep up to date on the latest arbitration developments.

Topics will be of particular interest to practicing lawyers, corporate counsel, business professionals and academics coming from or doing business in the MENA region.

Topics will include

- ICC arbitration in the MENA region: any influence of the Arab Spring two years on?
- The changing and challenging perceptions to having the MENA as a seat of arbitration. Assessment of individual states and territories.
- The interplay between civil law and common law in international arbitration: clash or harmony?
- State contracts and international arbitration in the MENA region

Participants will be able to take part in a Mock ICC Court session: Arbitrators' ethics from the ICC Court's standpoint

Sponsorship opportunities

This conference offers you an unrivalled opportunity to build worldwide partnerships. Sponsoring will get you visibility with the major decision makers in global business and/or within the international network.
