

Seminar on Mediation

Conference to be held at the Diplomatic Club, Roshana Room in Doha, Qatar

18 February 2013

Objective

The International Centre for ADR of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution (CEDR) and Allen & Overy extend an invitation to attend a seminar on the benefits of incorporating the mediation process into major construction projects in Qatar.

Mediation is internationally regarded as a very cost-effective and efficient means of resolving construction disputes, reducing the risks of costly conflict and delay. This seminar will provide participants with a comprehensive insight into its usage, along with options as to how best to use it.

Registration

Please register on or before 5 February 2012 by e-mail to drq@iccwbo.org

This event is free of charge, but places are limited

Programme

07:30-8:00	Registration and Coffee
08:00-08:15	Welcome and introduction
08:15-09:15	Mediation in action 1 - how it fits in to the dispute resolution landscape; when to use it; how and why it works
09:15-09:30	Q&A
09:30-10:15	Mediation – the concept and its application to the construction sector; benefits to clients and contractors; experiences and lessons
10:15-10:45	Coffee Break
10:45-11:30	Presentation of the experience of the ICC International Centre for ADR to handle mediations and the ICC ADR Rules
11:30-12:00	Q&A
12:00-13:00	Lunch break (Buffet lunch provided)
13:00-14:30	Mediation in action 2 – Demonstration of mediation in a construction dispute
14:30-14:45	Q&A
14:45-15:00	Closing Remarks

Speakers

Andy Grossman

Director, Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution (CEDR)

Sami Huerbi

Regional Director, ICC Arbitration and ADR, Middle East

Christopher Mainwaring-Taylor

Partner, Allen & Overy

Hannah Tümpel

Manager, ICC International Centre for ADR

With the support of