

PROGRAMME

ICC Seminar on Mediation and Amicable Dispute Resolution (“ADR”)

“Win-win strategies: Effective and Successful Mediation for International Commercial Disputes”

Clifford Chance

28/F Jardine House, One Connaught Place
Central, Hong Kong

30 November 2012, 10.00 a.m. to 5.00 p.m.

Organizers

Law Society CPD Points Application
Pending for Approval

ICC Seminar on Mediation and Amicable Dispute Resolution (“ADR”) “Win-win strategies: Effective and Successful Mediation for International Commercial Disputes”

10.00-10.15	Words of Welcome and Opening Address Neil Kaplan QC , ICC Court Member, Hong Kong
10.15-11.00	11 years international mediation administered by ICC: Lessons learned, challenges and opportunities ahead Hannah Tümpel , Manager, ICC Dispute Resolution Services, International Centre for ADR, France
11.00-11.15	Coffee Break
11.15-11.45	Preparing for Mediation – Perspectives from a Party to Mediation: How to get ready for an international mediation? Who and what needs to be involved? Kelly Austin , Partner, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, Hong Kong
11.45-13.00	Preparing for Mediation – Perspectives from External Counsel: How to prepare yourself and your client for a successful international mediation, Presentation and exercise in break-up groups Michelle Sindler , Chief Executive Officer, Australian International Dispute Centre (AIDC), Australia Breakup groups led by: Geoff Sharp , Commercial Mediator, Clifton Chambers, New Zealand Michelle Sindler Kelly Austin
13.00-14.15	Networking Lunch
14.15-14.45	Preparing for Mediation – Perspectives from the Mediator: Which international mediations work well? Geoff Sharp
14.45-15.30	How do the ICC ADR Rules and the administrative process actually work? (Filing of a Request, filing of an answer, finding the right mediator, supervision of the process, fixing the costs etc) and what value can an institution add? Michelle Sindler Joseph Tirado , Global Co-Head, International Arbitration, Winston & Strawn LLP, UK Moderated by: Hannah Tümpel

ICC Seminar on Mediation and Amicable Dispute Resolution (“ADR”) “Win-win strategies: Effective and Successful Mediation for International Commercial Disputes”

15.30-15.45 Coffee Break

15.45-16.30

Current trends and developments:

- The use of experts in international mediation: Added value or Over-burdening the process?
- No regrets the morning after: Ensuring confidentiality and enforceability
- How can ICC mediation be combined with ICC arbitration?

Colin Wall, Managing Director, Commercial, Mediation & Arbitration Services Ltd & Global Mediation Services Ltd, Hong Kong

Cameron Hassall, Partner, Clifford Chance, Hong Kong

Moderated by:

Kim Kit Ow, Director, ICC Arbitration & ADR, Singapore

16.30-16.45

Q&A

16.45-17.00

Closing Remarks

Kim Rooney, Arbitrator & Barrister, Gilt Chambers, Hong Kong