

ICC International Arbitration Seminar«2012 ICC Rules of Arbitration, One Year On... - A review, challenges and future outlook...»*Date and Time : 13 :30 – 17 :30, Friday, May 17, 2013*Venue : ARC HILLS CLUB(37 th fl., East Wing, ARC Mori Bldg.,*1-12-32, Akasaka, Minato-ku, Tokyo) ☎ : 03-5562-4110<http://www.arkhillsclub.com/jp/info/access.html>Organizer : International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), Japan in cooperation with Japan/Tokyo*Chambers of Commerce and Industry (simultaneous interpretation of Japanese and English provided)

ICC Japan is pleased to host the ICC International Arbitration Seminar on Friday, May 17, 2013. Details of the seminar program are as attached. The President of the ICC International Court of Arbitration (ICA) will clarify the role of the ICC Court to the audience as well as relate recent interesting cases which the court had to deal with, especially with the 2012 ICC Rules. Other speakers representing ICA will take stock of the 2012 Rules, how they have implemented and the issues relating to time & cost. Corporate counsel including legal experts and users of ICC arbitration, Japanese scholars, and representatives of ICA will also discuss the present circumstances of international dispute resolution in Japan and how to promote ICC arbitration.

This half-day seminar will provide an invaluable learning opportunity for corporate legal professionals and practitioners involved in international commercial transactions and dispute resolution.

Those who are interested in this seminar are kindly requested to fill in the registration form below and send it to ICC Japan (by either fax or email) . Attendance is limited to the first 150 respondents.

Admission fee: free of charge

REGISTRATION FORMFAX : 03-3213-8589

Full Name :

Position and Section, Division :

Company or Organization :

Address :

Phone :

Fax :

E-mail :