

The Arbitration Committee of the International Bar Association

International Chamber of Commerce
The world business organization

Young Arbitrators Forum

ICDR Young & International

The Irish Arbitration Association

Young Arbitration Practitioners Symposium

Hosted by

The Arbitration Committee of the International Bar Association – ICC YAF – ICDR Y&I – Arbitration Ireland

1 October 2012

City Wall Space, Civic Offices, Wood Quay, Dublin

Final Programme

4:00 – Registration

4:30 – Welcome and Opening remarks

Michael Collins SC, President, Arbitration Ireland

Reza Mohtashami, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP, Young Lawyers Liaison Officer, IBA Arbitration Committee

4:40 – Keynote Speech: So you want a career in international arbitration? The ten things young practitioners need to know

Mark Friedman, Debevoise & Plimpton LLP, Co-Chair, IBA Arbitration Committee

5:20 – Panel Discussion: Meeting expectations: Different perspectives on the international arbitration process

The counsel's perspective: what should we expect from arbitrators?

The arbitrator's perspective: the dos and don'ts that arbitration counsel should remember

The client's perspective: what arbitration gets right and what it gets wrong?

Karl Hennessee, Vice President and Head of Litigation, Airbus SAS

Jennifer Kirby, Kirby Arbitration

Klaus Reichert SC, Brick Court Chambers; Council Member, IBA Legal Practice Division

Moderated by Lucy Martinez, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP, Executive Board Member, ICDR Young & International

6:20 – Closing remarks

José Ricardo Féris, Deputy Secretary General, ICC International Court of Arbitration

Mark Appel, Senior Vice-President, International Centre for Dispute Resolution® (ICDR)

6:30 – Reception

7:30 – Close