

Making IP work for development

Discussions on how to harness the intellectual property system for development

3 February 2006, 9.30 – 13.00 and 15.00 – 18.00
WIPO Main Building

Moderators

Morning H.E. Ambassador Samuel Amehou
Permanent Mission of the Republic of Benin

Afternoon HE Ambassador Enrique Manalo
Permanent Mission of the Philippines

Speakers

Jooik Park and Soonwoo Hong
First Secretary, Permanent Mission of the Republic of Korea
Counsellor, WIPO SME's Division; formerly Director, Korean IP Office

Cynthia Cannady
Director of the Division of IP and New Technologies, WIPO

Nick Motsatse
Marketing Director and Joint Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the Southern African Music Rights Organisation SAMRO (South Africa)

Ron Layton
President, Light Years IP (non-profit organisation helping developing countries use the IP system to alleviate poverty through trade)

Ana Maria Frieri del Castillo Founding partner of Olarte Raisbeck & Frieri, Colombia (specialist in the Colombian biotechnological sector)

Akim Mogaji
Creative Director, BBC World Service Trust, Nigeria