

Young Approaches to Arbitration

Vienna, 27 March 2010

Free of charge

Jointly organized by the ICC YAF and the YAAP

International Chamber of Commerce
The world business organization

Young Arbitrators Forum

You are cordially invited to attend this conference, which will be held during the Vis Moot in Vienna.

Topics addressed:

- Principle of Kompetenz-Kompetenz (in light of the Green paper of the Commission)
- The Impact of European Community law on international arbitration
- Insolvency in international arbitration

Speakers:

- Alberto Fortún, Cuatrecasas, Gonçalves Pereira, Spain
- Simon Greenberg, ICC International Court of Arbitration, Paris
- Laura S. Halonen, Lalive, Switzerland
- Christian Koller, University of Zurich, Switzerland
- Stefan Kröll, Attorney-at-Law, Germany
- Sophie Nappert, 3 Verulam Buildings, United Kingdom
- Philipp Peters, Konrad & Justich, Austria
- Alexandre Vagenheim, Castaldi Mourre, France
- Simon Walsh, Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom, United Kingdom

Programme:

A complete version of the programme is available on the ICC YAF website www.iccyaf.org or the YAAP website www.yaap.at

Time and Venue:

The conference will begin at 9.30 and end at 15.30 and will be held at Erste Bank Event Center, Petersplatz 7, 1010 Vienna

Registration:

Please register by sending your full contact details to Mr. Mario Baumgartner, e-mail: m.baumgartner@icc-austria.org

Who should attend?

Young Arbitration practitioners

Social event:

In the evening, we invite the participants to a Viennese Wine Evening near the conference center. Details will be provided upon registration.

Practical information:

This conference is free of charge.
We are offering light lunch.

This conference will provide an opportunity for young practitioners to exchange ideas on international arbitration and to network.

With the support of

