India is endowed with a rich heritage of art and culture. Classical Indian dance and music owe their origins to temple and religious festivals. Delhi is a perennial venue for performances and recitals and an hour of experience (Dances of India Show at Anjuman Parsi Theatre - show timing 06:45 PM - 07:45 PM) is worth years of memory. The music and dance (Sound & Light Show at Red Fort - show timing 08:30 PM - 09:30 PM) performance is followed by a sumptuous dinner at a first class restaurant - "Park Baluchi" located inside Deer Park, Hauz Khas Village. A perfect evening after a perfect day to end the day on a perfect note.

Delhi is a shoppers paradise. If you are looking for one place where you can buy artifacts from all over India, head for Dilli Haat or Delhi's own commercial hub, Connaught Place, with the colourful stalls on Janpath, and the state emporia on Baba Kharag Singh Marg. The Central Cottage Industries Emporium is an excellent place to shop for Indian crafts and textiles.
